Form 990, Part I, Line 1 - Organization Mission or Significant Activities

The ITEA mission has not changed in its 44 years - we continue to advance the exchange of technical, programmatic, and acquisition information among the test and evaluation community. However, in 2023, the ITEA board conducted a year-long strategic planning session and began the implementation process in 2024 on how ITEA can grow the future workforce of test and evaluation. The implantation plan was sorted into three categories: Financial, Workforce, and Membership - A Director took the lead on each category and formed a sub-committee to investigate ways to improve the goals of the association. The association leaders sparked enthusiasm and participation from our membership - focusing on the early career members, to understand what they were looking for in a professional and educational association. This was an extremely productive year!

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

Educational Workshops and Events: In 2024, we exceeded expectations with our memberships desire to attend training workshops. With enthusiasm, ITEA continues to have an upswing in participation with an unusually high level of responses to attending and presenting technical papers at these events. We continued to focus on educating the future test and evaluation workforce as well as continuing to educate the current workforce. Due to the strategic plans being implemented this year, the early career workforce professionals are now more than ever, seeking knowledge from the leadership and technical subject matter experts. We offered a new 1-day forum on a new topic (AI in Test and Evaluation) that created a lot of discussion and enthusiasm. We continued to host workshops on topics such as, Directed Energy, Cybersecurity, Test Instrumentation, and Multi-Domain Operations; and found our members were eager to engage in these highly sought after topics to learn and share knowledge and advance the field of test and evaluation.

LIFT Users Forum: In 2024, the International Test and Evaluation Association (ITEA) entered into a collaborative arrangement with William Thomas Consulting, led by CEO Dr. Scott Foisey, an active ITEA member, to support an educational event for the Test and Evaluation (T&E) community in Virginia Beach. Dr. Foisey hosted the LIFT Users Forum, an event designed to share the current and future state of the Leverage Innovations, Frameworks, and Technologies (LIFT) ecosystem and to gather the ?voice of the customer? from system users. LIFT is a digital ecosystem that supports teams of any size and mission, enabling collaboration and lifecycle management from concept through sustainment. It integrates tools such as JIRA and Confluence to foster agile workflows, streamline project tracking, and enhance communication. LIFT provides an environment where teams can create dynamic pages, design workflows, and generate reports that effectively communicate organizational data to stakeholders. The ITEA Board of Directors approved the LIFT Users Forum as an official ITEA-supported event and incorporated it into the annual budget. ITEA provided logistical and administrative support, including participant registration and event hosting on the ITEA website. To help offset the costs associated with the use of ITEA?s registration database and on-site support, ITEA received $5,000 from William Thomas Consulting. The collaboration successfully advanced professional development and knowledge-sharing within the T&E community while showcasing innovative digital practices that enhance efficiency and team performance across programs and organizations.
